Kindergarten Book Titles

Students benefit from hearing favorites multiple times and even revisiting them another time. Favorite collections can then become independent where students can "read the story" by memory after many exposures.

Kindergarteners should be able to listen to stories, join in on favorite parts, and retell the beginning, middle, and end by the end of kindergarten. They should be reading some sight words and be able to blend known sounds by the end of the school year.

Title	Author
Autumn Leaves	Gail Saunders-Smith
The Berenstein Bears (series)	Stan and Jan Berenstein
Growing Colors	Bruce McMillan
Do you want to be my Friend?	Eric Carle
Your Name is a Song	Jamilah Thompkins-Bigelow
Sometimes All I Need is Me	Juliana Perdomo
Duck on a Bike (series)	David Shannon
Gilbert the Goldfish Wants a Pet	Kelly DiPucchio
Rocket Writes a Story	Tad Hills
The Important Books	Margaret Wise Brown
David Goes to School	David Shannon
Leo the Late Bloomer	Robert Kraus
The Invisible String	Patrice Karst
Heart String	Brooke Boynton-Hughes
Are You My Mother?	P.D. Eastman
Jabari Jumps	Gaia Cornwall
Chicka Chicka Boom Boom	Bill Martin Jr. & John Archambault
Grumpy Monkey	Suzanne Lang

Make them Laugh

Title	Author
Mr. Tiger Goes Wild	Peter Brown
Life on Mars	Jon McGhee
Underwear	Jenn Harney
Interrupting Chicken and the Elephant of Surprise	David Ezra Stein
Horse Meets Dog	Elliot Kalan and Tim Miller
Nerp	Sarah Lynn Reul

Bathe the Cat	Alice McGinty
Ella May Does Her Way	Mick Jackson
I'm Bored	Michael Ian Black
This Book Just Ate my Dog	Richard Byrne
Underwear	Jennifer Harney