

Unit 15

His mother is a good cook.

My brother grew an inch in January.

It is not wise to argue with the umpire.

The crew hopes to get some flounder on the fishing trip.

The rooster began to crow at six in the morning.

The boys like to shoot pool down in the basement.

Those flowers should be in bloom soon.

January and February are months in the winter.

Will the class continue through July?

Week 2

Did you get enough to eat?

We had special plans in December.

Do we have enough kids for another group?

That rooster thinks he is quite special!

A cold wind blew every day in December.
