

The Prom

Glen had a plan to ask Liz to go to the prom. He felt that she was the best gal in the class. Liz said yes to Glen! It cost lots of cash to rent the tux, but Glen had to look his best. Lots of kids in the class went stag to the prom. Glen did not brag, but he felt a big grin all night.

The Big Job

Jed had to trim the shrub and cut the grass for Mr. Smith. This was a big job. Lots of bugs bit Jed and it was hot. At last the grass was cut. Mr. Smith was glad. Jed's legs felt stiff, but he was glad when he got the cash for the job.

Tom and the Band

Tom had to set up the drum for the band. It was such a fun task. He went at six to set up. The spot was a mess, but he did not crab. At last the drum was set, and Tom had to test it. When the rest of the band got to the club, they had lots of fun.

The Hunt

Bob and Tim went on a hunt. They had to trot ten miles to a camp which was next to a small pond. Bob lit the lamp, and the men sat on the cots to rest.

The next day they went to hunt, but they did not have much luck. They went back to the camp and had a big lunch. It was still lots of fun.

Brad and Sam

Brad and Sam went to bask in the hot sun at Dret Pond. Sam got the raft in the shed. They left the land in a flash with a big gust of wind.

Brad and Sam let the raft skim the pond. It was hot so they had a jump in the pond. Then they just sat in the sun. It was such bliss!

The Lost Brush

Peg sent Ted to get the best brush, but it was not in its spot. It was lost. Ted and Peg then went on a hunt for the brush. Ted got a stiff brush, and a soft brush, but not the best brush. The next week, Peg had to dust the den. Peg did lift the vent to dust, and the best brush was in it. Peg felt glad to get her brush back.

Beth's Fall

Mom had Beth sit on the top step in her silk dress. Mom did not want Beth to get up. When Mom left, Beth got up. She ran on the grass and fell when she hit a twig. She cut her leg with the trip.

Beth sat on the top step and wept. She had a big slash in her silk dress. Mom got cross and did yell at Beth when she saw the rip in her dress. Mom had to fix the cut on Beth's leg and mend the red dress.

Ted's Bump

Ted got a bump on his leg and he felt sad. He went to hunt for his mom. He got her in a flash.

“Ted, why do you limp? What is this welt?” she said.

“I fell in the pond and hit my leg,” Ted said.

Mom then wet a cloth and held it on Ted's leg. At last Ted felt a grin on his lips. He said, “Mom, you are the best!”

Gramps and Gram

Pam and Bob had six kids. Pam called her mom to ask her to spend a day with the kids. Gram and Gramps and the kids all went to the mall.

Gram and Gramps spent lots of cash with the kids. They did not scrimp. They went to the dress shops at the mall. Then they got crafts for the kids. They all had a big lunch. Gramps got bad cramps from lots of scrod. At last, Pam and Bob got the kids. They all said, "Thanks!"
